

Additional ALEC Programming

Part 1: Legal Challenges for the Next Redistricting in 2021

Various legal challenges and state-specific redistricting reforms have changed the rules on how to draw district lines. Legal experts will provide you with valuable insight into the next decade's redistricting challenges.

Part 2: Engaging with the Public on Redistricting

Talking about redistricting with your constituents doesn't have to be complicated. This panel will equip you with practical suggestions to de-mystify redistricting for the public and help you begin to develop a communication and public engagement plan for your state.